ARTICLE I NAME AND PLACE

The name of this Association is Evergreen Cemetery Association, located in Brainerd, Crow Wing County, and State of Minnesota. Its principal place of business is in the City of Brainerd.

ARTICLE II OBJECTIVES

The objective of the Association is to advance the interests and enhance the image of Evergreen and Memorial Gardens cemeteries consistent with the Articles of Incorporation, May 16, 1879, and applicable Minnesota Statutes.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Every person who owns a burial space in either Evergreen or Memorial Gardens cemeteries is a member of the Association and is entitled to attend all meetings of the Association and vote at the election of the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IV MEETINGS

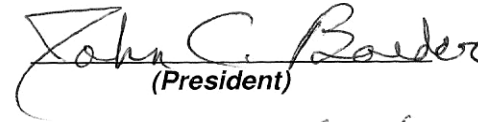

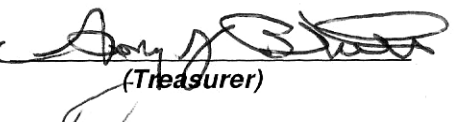

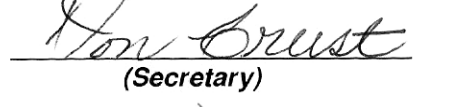

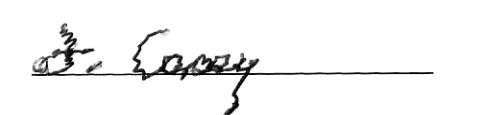

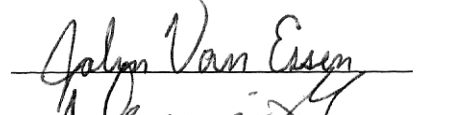

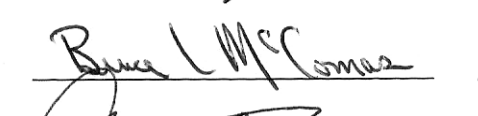

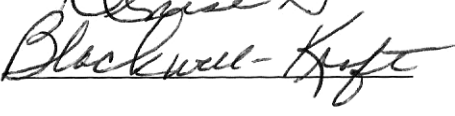

Section 1 The Annual Meeting of the Association will be held in July of each year at a time and place designated by the Board of Trustees. Notice of the Annual Meeting will be published once a week for two successive weeks in a local newspaper designated by the Board of Trustees, prior to the meeting.

Section 2 Regular Meetings of the Board of Trustees will be held at least quarterly at such times and places designated by the Board of Trustees. Notices of Regular Meeting schedules will be mailed to the Board of Trustees at least quarterly.

Section 3 Special Meetings of either the Board of Trustees or the membership may be called for any purpose or purposes at any time by any two or more Trustees, or by ten or more members. Notice of Special Meetings will be published once a week for two weeks in a local newspaper designated by the Board of Trustees, prior to such meeting, and notice mailed to the Board of Trustees.

Section 4 A member may waive notice of a meeting before, at or after the meeting, either in writing, orally or by attendance. Attendance by a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting.

These revisions to the Bylaws of the Evergreen Cemetery Association were adopted by resolution by members of the Association at its Annual Meeting on July 20, 2015.

ARTICLE VIII QUORUM

Section 1 A quorum at any meeting of the members will be at least a majority of those members qualified and present except that a two-thirds majority of those qualified and present is required to amend these Bylaws.

Section 2 A quorum at any meeting of the Board of Trustees will be five members, one of which will be the President or Vice President.

Section 3 A quorum at any meeting of a committee will be a majority of the members appointed to that committee.

ARTICLE IX AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present at any Special or Annual Meeting of the Association providing notice of changes is made available to the members at least thirty days prior to such meeting. Revisions will not be contrary to the Bylaws and objectives of the Association.

ARTICLE X PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Roberts Rules of Order, currently revised, will govern the business of the Association.

----- End of Bylaws -----

ARTICLE V ELECTION OF A BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1 The corporate powers of this Association, subject to the authority of the Association, are vested in a nine-member Board of Trustees. Matters pertaining to the governance and the business of the Association will be conducted by the Board of Trustees.

Section 2 Each Trustee must meet one of these 4 requirements: (a) Be a member of the Association (see Article III), or (b) Be the spouse of a member, or (c) Be the surviving spouse with life estate of a member, or (d) Be the presumptive heir through Descent of Title of a member.

Section 3 Three members of the Board of Trustees will be elected each year for three-year terms of office by the membership at the Annual Meeting and will assume their duties immediately after election. If a vacancy occurs, the Board will appoint a replacement within ninety days or as soon thereafter as possible to fill the unexpired term.

Section 4 The officers of the Association are President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer and will serve one year terms unless sooner removed for cause or are unable to perform their duties. The officers will be elected by the Board of Trustees from among its members at a Regular or Special Meeting immediately following the Annual Meeting or at a Regular or Special Meeting immediately following a vacancy or resignation.

Section 5 Resignations from the Board of Trustees may occur voluntarily or may be called for by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees for cause. Resignations will become effective upon receipt of proper notice.

ARTICLE VI POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

Section 1 Members of the Board of Trustees have the power and it is their individual fiduciary duty to assure the best interests of the Association. The Board of Trustees conducts the business of the Association and is responsible for its overall management and operation. Because this Association was in existence on March 1, 1906, all powers as they pertain to Cemeteries will be executed by the Board of Trustees according to the Association's Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws and Minnesota law.

Section 2 The Board of Trustees will appoint two Standing Committees: Grounds and Finance. Each committee will consist of as many Association members as the Board of Trustees may direct, and each will be chaired by a member of the Board of Trustees.

A It will be the duty of the Grounds Committee to provide general supervision of the improvement, maintenance and operation of the Association grounds and property at Evergreen and Memorial Gardens cemeteries.

B It will be the duty of the Finance Committee to provide general supervision of the administration, finances and accounts of the Association.

C Standing Committee chairpersons will call regular committee meetings and provide written reports of all activity to the Board of Trustees for its permanent record. A quorum of the Committee is required to initiate any action.

D The Board of Trustees may define, expand or limit the responsibilities of the Standing Committees from time to time.

Section 3 The Board of Trustees will appoint other committees it deems necessary for the conduct of its business. These committees will report either to Standing Committees or the Board of Trustees as the Board so directs. All ad hoc, temporary, special, or standing committees will be dissolved and/or reappointed following the Annual Meeting or at any other time determined by the Board of Trustees.

Section 4 The Board of Trustees may employ or contract with persons or businesses to accomplish the work of Evergreen and Memorial Gardens cemeteries.

Section 5 The Board of Trustees will make and enforce rules and regulations pertaining to the overall operation of the Association, including but not limited to the purchase, sale, management and maintenance of real and personal property and the investment and management of funds.

Section 6 No member of the Board of Trustees is empowered to act independently without approval of the Board or appropriate committee.

ARTICLE VII DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1 The President will preside at all meetings of the Association and the Board of Trustees and perform such other duties as may be required by the Board or the Bylaws of the Association. The President, together with the Secretary, will execute and deliver in the name of the Association any deeds, bonds, contracts or other instruments pertaining to the business of the Association, and perform all duties usually incident to the office of President.

Section 2 The Vice President will assume the duties of the President in the event that the President is unavailable or unwilling to fulfill the duties of President. The Vice President may be deputized by the Board of Trustees to assume or assist in such other official duties of officers of the Association and perform all duties usually incident to the office of Vice President.

Section 3 The Secretary will file correct and complete records of all meetings of the Board of Trustees and assure that records be kept and filed of the several committees. Such minutes and records will be the property of the Association and open for inspection to any member. The Secretary, together with the President, will sign all financial documents including checks for payments approved by the Board of Trustees. The Secretary will at all times keep on file a complete copy of the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Association and all amendments and restatements thereof, and when directed to do so, will give proper notice of meetings. The Secretary will perform the duties usually incident to the office of Secretary and may, with approval of the Board of Trustees, deputize assistance thereof.

Section 4 The Treasurer will report and file accurate monthly accounts of all moneys of the Association received or disbursed. All records will be kept with approved accounting practices commonly used by not-for-profit cemetery associations. The Treasurer will perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and may, with approval of the Board of Trustees, deputize assistance thereof.
